

The Enemy Within

You don't need to measure up to anyone else's expectations of you. You are not on this earth for the purpose of being what someone else expects you to be... you are you and you are unique...there is no one else just like you. You are fulfilling the Creator's plan and purpose in your own individual way. You do not owe it to any other person or institution to be what they think you should be. Your main purpose is to be what you are... what you want to be.

To do this does not require that you be tormented and miserable. Life's learning experiences can be hard, but once you learn them, go on with your life in a positive and fulfilling way. You do not need to make the same mistakes repeatedly.

The enemy can be defeated if you know how to fight.
