

Quotes by Albert Einstein

“There are two ways to live: you can live as if nothing is a miracle; you can live as if everything is a miracle.”

“Science without religion is lame, religion without science is blind.”

“We can't solve problems by using the same kind of thinking we used when we created them.”

“Only a life lived for others is a life worth while.”

“If you can't explain it simply, you don't understand it well enough”

“Logic will get you from A to B. Imagination will take you everywhere.”

“The only real valuable thing is intuition.”

“Everything that can be counted does not necessarily count; everything that counts cannot necessarily be counted.”

“Once we accept our limits, we go beyond them.”

“The only thing that interferes with my learning is my education.”

“The value of a man should be seen in what he gives and not in what he is able to receive.”

“We still do not know one thousandth of one percent of what nature has revealed to us.”

“Imagination is more important than knowledge. For knowledge is limited to all we now know and understand, while imagination embraces the entire world, and all there ever will be to know and understand.”
