Marie Curie

“To be a star, you must shine your own light, follow your own path, and don't worry about the darkness, for that is when the stars shine brightest”

“Fear is a habit; so is self-pity, defeat, anxiety, despair, hopelessness and resignation. You can eliminate all of these negative habits with two simple resolves: I can!! and I will!!”

“Fear is a darkroom where negatives develop.”

“Fear is the thought of admitted inferiority.”

Elbert Hubbard

“The worst lies are the lies we tell ourselves. We live in denial of what we do, even what we think. We do this because we're afraid. We fear we will not find love, and when we find it we fear we'll lose it. We fear that if we do not have love we will be unhappy.”

Richard Bach

“Inaction breeds doubt and fear. Action breeds confidence and courage. If you want to conquer fear, do not sit home and think about it. Go out and get busy.”

Dale Carnegie

“There are four ways you can handle fear. You can go over it, under it, or around it. But if you are ever to put fear behind you, you must walk straight through it. Once you put fear behind you, leave it there.”

Donna A. Favors

“Courage is not the absence of fear, but the mastery of it”

“Let us not look back in anger, nor forward in fear, but around in awareness.”

James Thurber

“Neither a man nor a crowd nor a nation can be trusted to act humanely or to think sanely under the influence of a great fear.”

Bertrand Russell

“Fear always springs from ignorance”

Ralph Waldo Emerson

“Wicked men obey out of fear; good men, out of love.”

Aristotle

“Fear is, I believe, a most effective tool in destroying the soul of an individual - and the soul of a people”
